

LAUNCHES COLLIDE; COXSAIN DROWNS

Man Looking After Safety of Others Disappears Forever.

TO AVOID SUCH ACCIDENTS

Admiral Evans Promulgates Order Designed to Make Them Impossible.

NORFOLK, VA., April 22.—The collision which occurred in Hampton Roads about midnight Friday between the steam launch of the battleship Virginia and Connecticut resulted in the death of the coxswain of the Virginia's launch.

The two boats came together with such force that the entire crew of the launch from the Virginia was thrown into the water. The searchlights of the Connecticut, near which the accident occurred, were immediately turned on, and the men scrambled into the Connecticut's launch, their own having turned turtle.

A derrick was thrown out from the Connecticut to pick up the overturned launch. Just as it had apparently been made fast, the coxswain climbed aboard to see that all was right, and as he did so the launch slipped from the derrick, throwing him violently into the water. Every effort was made to rescue him, but he was never seen again.

An order has been promulgated by Admiral Evans whereby accidents will be avoided in the future. Each division of the fleet will send their launches ashore at different hours, thereby doing away with the congestion which would otherwise occur at the government landing at Old Point.

Inspects the Tidewater.

General Manager Dupuy, Chief Engineer Fernstrom and Assistant Engineer Taylor, who, with President Evans, of the Tidewater Railway, have been on an inspection of that road and the new Deepwater connections in West Virginia, returned to the city yesterday, highly pleased with conditions as they found them all along the line. They traveled in their special car for 115 miles west of Norfolk on the Tidewater tracks, and then the Norfolk and Western transferred them from Brookland, in Campbell county, where the Tidewater has nine miles of track laid, thence to the Potomac, eight miles of track is laid, and thence to Matokawa, where the Deepwater line was reached.

The Tidewater management expects to have its tracks into Victoria, Lunenburg county, by May 1st.

The Tidewater officials are not yet ready to announce definite plans for the new union station depot on East Main Street, and say it will be some time before this is done; that there are many plans to be worked out as yet, and that the idea of the other railroads that are to join in the union depot must be received and gone over.

The Tidewater has gotten in bids for its new $20,000 brick freight depot, but the contract has not yet been let.

IN SERIOUS CONDITION.

Frank Wilson, Who Ran Game of Chance, Severely Beaten.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

DANVILLE, VA., April 22.—Frank Wilson, a white man about thirty years of age, and whose home is in Lexington, Ky., is at the General Hospital here in a serious condition as the result of being mangled and assaulted Saturday night in front of the First Baptist Church and in the heart of the residential section of the city. Wilson came here with Smith's carnival and conducted a game of chance. He became involved in some dispute with some patrons, and a white man, and closed up his tent to avoid trouble. It is supposed that members of the party mangled him. He was struck over the head with some blunt instrument, and picked up in an unconscious condition. The injury is not expected to prove fatal.

WANTED FOR ROBBERY.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) DANVILLE, VA., April 22.—Archie Gibson, white, was arrested here yesterday on the charge of having committed three robberies at Spray, N. C., early in February. The store of the Spray Mercantile Company, the Danville and Western depot and the Harper Lumber Company's plant were all broken into one night, and the thieves got away with a large quantity of booty. Three men are now in jail

A Lazy Liver

May be only a tired liver, or a starved liver. It would be a stupid as well as a savage thing to beat a weary or starved man because he lagged in his work. So in treating the lagging, torpid liver it is a great mistake to push it with strong drastic drugs. A torpid liver is but an indication of an ill-nourished, enfeebled body whose organs are weary with overwork. Start with the stomach and allied organs of digestion and nutrition. Put them in working order and see how quickly your liver will become active. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has made many marvelous cures of "liver trouble" by its wonderful control of the organs of digestion and nutrition. It restores the normal activity of the stomach, increases the secretions of the blood-making glands, cleanses the system from poisonous accumulations, and so relieves the liver of the burden imposed upon it by the defection of other organs.

If you have bitter or bad taste in the morning, poor or variable appetite, coated tongue, foul breath, constipated or irregular bowels, feel weak, easily tired, despondent, frequent headaches, pain or distress "small of back," gnawing or distressing "rising" in stomach, perhaps nausea, "acid" or "rising" in throat after eating, and kindred symptoms of weak stomach and torpid liver, no medicine will relieve you more promptly or cure you more permanently than Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Perhaps only a part of the above symptoms will be present at one time and yet point to torpid liver or biliousness and weak stomach. Avoid all hot bread and biscuits, griddle cakes and other indigestible food and take the "Golden Medical Discovery" regularly and stick to its use until you are vigorous and strong.

The "Discovery" is non-secret, non-alcoholic, is a glyceric extract of native medicinal roots with a full list of its ingredients printed on each bottle wrapper and attested under oath. Its ingredients are endorsed and extolled by the most eminent medical writers of the age and are recommended to cure the diseases for which it is advised.

Don't accept a substitute of unknown composition for this non-secret medicine of known composition.

HOTTEST CAMPAIGN BRISTOL EVER SAW

It Ended Yesterday and To-Day the Saloon and Anti-Saloon Forces Will Vote.

HAVE AN IMPOSING PARADE

Probably Three Thousand People Will Be in Line, Carrying Banners.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

BRISTOL, VA., April 22.—To-day ends the hottest campaign in Bristol's history, and to-morrow a battle of ballots will decide whether or not the open saloon is to be banished from Bristol. No question has ever arisen here that has created the excitement and enthusiasm of this local option campaign. If the liquor forces should win, the victory in Bristol, Tenn., just recently recorded, when that municipality voted almost unanimously to abolish saloons, would be virtually lost, although no matter what the decision of Bristol, Va., may be, saloons cannot exist in Bristol, Tenn., under the Pendleton law.

The temperance people will fill the streets as early as 5 o'clock to-morrow morning, when men, women and children, representing every church organization and all the schools and colleges, will assemble in front of the Central Presbyterian Church, at Cumberland and Moore Streets, and will spend an hour in prayer and song, after which a parade will be formed, headed by the Bristol Military Band, and carrying every sort of a temperance banner. The principal streets will be paraded in the interest of the temperance fight, and it is thought that not less than 3,000 people will be in the parade. The chief marshal of the parade will be Major A. B. Reynolds, a brother of R. J. Reynolds, the millionaire tobacco manufacturer, of Winston, N. C.

The temperance people are confident of winning, but realize that it is to be a struggle that will require every particle of their strength to make sure of a substantial victory.

DeJarnette, Jr., an attorney of Orange Courthouse, are endeavoring to bring him out as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for the House of Delegates in the district composed of Westmoreland, and Northumberland counties. They are George Mason, the incumbent, and W. T. Mayo, of Westmoreland; T. A. Jett and W. P. Snyder of Northumberland. In the district composed of Lancaster and Richmond counties, John Curlett, the incumbent, has no opposition as yet for re-election.

SLEEP IN SAME GRAVE.

Closing Chapter of Clifton Forge Tragedy Occurs.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CLIFTON FORGE, VA., April 22.—The closing chapter in the Gay-Pendleton tragedy of last Thursday morning was enacted here to-day, when the funeral took place from the Baptist Church at 2 o'clock. This church seats about 800 people, and at least 1,000 people were in the building this afternoon, many more having been turned away who could not gain admittance. Revs. George E. Davis, W. H. Sanders and L. H. Paul conducted the services. Following the exercises in the church the funeral party made its way to Crown Hill Cemetery, where the bodies of Mr. Gay and Miss Pendleton were interred in the same grave. Fully 2,000 people were in the cemetery to witness the burial. Work was practically suspended in the Chesapeake and Ohio shops again to-day, and business in other lines was interrupted by the funeral. The procession was the largest ever to occur here, and the funeral itself, the saddest on record in this section of Virginia. The tragedy is still on the lips of every citizen.

WOMAN IN MALE GARB WAS SLEUTH

She Was Trying to Catch Up With Lover When Killed by White Boys.

PRELIMINARY HEARING TO-DAY

Danville Mayor Will Listen to Plea of Self-Defense—Two Youths Confess.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

DANVILLE, VA., April 22.—The coroner's jury investigating the death of Ellen Elliott, the negro woman who was killed in a negro suburb of Danville Saturday night while masquerading in male attire by a crowd of white boys, returned a verdict to-day, placing the blame on Tom L. Walker, Joe Baugh, Oscar Neathery and John B. Talbott. All of the above are white and are now in jail, their ages ranging from fifteen to twenty-one years. One of the boys wears knee trousers. The investigation to-day showed the woman, accompanied by Tom Guinn, a negro man, was walking along the street, when one of a crowd of boys threw some rocks at the couple. The woman then cursed the boys and a quarrel followed. The boys claim that the woman fired at them twice with a pistol, after which they closed in on her and beat her to death.

Walker confesses knocking the woman down with a beer bottle, and Baugh confessed twice plunging a long knife into her back. Walker says he wrested a pistol from the hands of the woman and fired twice at Tom Guinn, who fled when the fight first began, but who started back. The boys then kicked the woman and hit her with rocks, leaving her in a dying condition. Either the blow on the head or the stab wound was sufficient to have caused death. Tom Guinn, at the hearing to-day, stated that the woman suspected that he had been going with other women and dressed up as a man Saturday night to catch him. Guinn identified the pistol taken from Walker as being his property, and explained that the woman must have taken it from his room.

The boys will be given a preliminary hearing in the Mayor's Court to-morrow morning, and will probably plead self-defense. Some of them are prominently connected.

KILLS MAN FOR TEN CENTS

Corn Whiskey and Game of Poker Death of Henry Glass.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

SITHERLIN, HALIFAX CO., VA., April 22.—As the result of a blind tiger and ten-cent ante in a game of cards, Henry Glass died and Bob Richardson, both colored, and whose homes were near here, is in Halifax on liquor-dealers as entirely inadequate and the $500 peddler's tax as unjustly prohibitive. The City Attorney rendered the opinion that the veto of our sections vetoed the whole ordinance; but as all other sections are approved, the substance of the situation is in liquor-dealers and lowering that on peddlers. An interesting contest is expected at to-morrow night's meeting.

Many Attend Revival.

Great congregations are attending the union revival at the Tabb Street Presbyterian Church, conducted by the Rev. George C. Cates, a noted evangelist from Louisville, Ky., under the auspices of the Presbyterian, Methodist, Baptist and Christian churches. Ministers of all denominations are taking part in the services, and at the opening meeting yesterday afternoon one-minute talks were given by the pastors of nearly every church in Petersburg. Rev. Dr. J. S. Foster, pastor of Tabb Street Church, introduced Mr. Cates, who spoke with great simplicity and power, outlining his plans and making a most earnest appeal to the big audience for their united aid in his work. There were three conversations at the meeting. At the evening services the church was crowded, and another meeting was held in the Sunday-school room. A morning and evening meeting are to be held every day this week.

COUNCIL FAILS TO PASS ORDINANCE

Mayor Jones's Veto Was Sustained With Margin of Two Votes. Action Reconsidered.

TAX ON PEDDLERS TOO HIGH

So Believes Mayor Jones—Tax on Pool-Rooms and Bars Too Low.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

PETERSBURG, VA., April 22.—At a special meeting to-night the City Council failed by two votes to pass the city license tax ordinance over Mayor Jones's veto, such action requiring sixteen of the twenty-four votes in that body, and to-night's vote resulting in fourteen in favor of passing the ordinance over the veto, seven against. Charles W. Bland changed his vote from yes to no, and then moved a reconsideration of the vote, which motion was unanimously adopted. On motion of George Cameron, Jr., chairman of the Finance Committee, reconsideration was postponed until to-morrow night.

In his message to the Council, Mayor Jones returned the license tax ordinance approved, except the section fixing amount of taxes on billiard and pool-rooms, eating-houses where drinks are served, regular saloons and on peddlers.

Recently reported, the Mayor strongly advocates increased taxes on pool-rooms and saloons and smaller tax on peddlers, whose license was raised by the new ordinance from $50 to $500.

Kills All the Ordinances.

The Mayor's message very emphatically disapproved of pool-rooms as the worst kind of gambling places, and characterized the $125 city license tax on liquor-dealers as entirely inadequate and the $500 peddler's tax as unjustly prohibitive. The City Attorney rendered the opinion that the veto of our sections vetoed the whole ordinance; but as all other sections are approved, the substance of the situation is in liquor-dealers and lowering that on peddlers. An interesting contest is expected at to-morrow night's meeting.
